An exciting opportunity has emerged for an energetic, ambitious and dedicated coach to help shape the future of junior football at Inglewood United.

The role within our National Premier Leagues coaching structure requires collaboration with the Club's football staff and senior management to achieve key performance indicators related to the ongoing development of players.

The successful applicant will be responsible for identifying and mentoring young players with the potential to progress through the Clubs NPL development structure; implementing the Clubs junior program, which is aligned to Football Federation Australia's National Curriculum; and promoting the Club vision and philosophy.

ROLES & RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Organise, conduct and evaluate NPL team training sessions and matches
- Manage equipment, players, support staff and rosters
- Deliver high-level tactical and technical coaching and foundations to players
- As required, work alongside and/or assist the Club's NPL coaching staff
- Deliver a coaching program adhering to the FFA's National Curriculum.

DESIRED SKILLS & EXPERIENCE:

- Minimum FFA 'C' Licence working toward FFA 'B' Licence or UEFA equivalent
- Previous experience working with high-level youth players
- Strong communication and presentation skills
- Tertiary qualifications in human movement, sports science or sports management (desirable)
- Working with Children's check
- Current Police Clearance
